

The Discipleship Cohort

at All Saints Church

Cohort Expectations

Participants in The Discipleship Cohort at All Saints Church are invited into developing both individual and shared rhythms of life. These rhythms are meant to foster holistic flourishing and maturity in the private and corporate lives of the members. The expectation is that the Cohort participants would commit to the following rhythms:

Worship

- Regular involvement in the life of All Saints Church and attendance at corporate worship gatherings
- Personal rhythms that foster intimacy with Christ, including the practice of Sabbath

Equipping

- Monthly one-on-one discipleship meetings with a ministry team leader
- Attendance and honest engagement in weekly cohort meetings and corresponding readings

Service

- Service at two Sunday worship gatherings each month (Volunteer opportunities can be found at www.allsaintsamesbury.org/serve)
- Hospitality expressed through the administration of monthly Feast & Feasts

Fellowship

- Development of corporate rhythms that cultivate love for God and one another
- A practice of simultaneously listening to one another and the Holy Spirit during cohort gatherings

General Logistics

The cost of the program is $300 per participant. These fees cover costs for books and Cohort gatherings, including the orientation retreat at the beginning of the year. As the focus of the program is to disciple young adults at All Saints Church, the program requires that participants would be regular attenders of All Saints Church. The primary time commitments consist of attending the weekly cohort meetings, serving at two Sunday services each month (or the equivalent amount of time in other capacities), receiving monthly discipleship and encouragement, and helping host the Feast & Feasts that will be held three times per semester.

Resident-Specific Logistics

The Residency is located above the All Saints Church offices. The second floor has been renovated to include eight bedrooms, three bathrooms (two for the women's wing and one for the men's wing), a common room, and a communal kitchen that lies between the men's and women's wings. Each resident will have their own bedroom. These are not "luxury" apartments, but the rooms are fully-furnished, private, and clean. Since there is ample storage on site, residents are also welcome to bring their own furnishings.

Residential Address:	6 Allens Court, Amesbury, MA 01913
Rent Cost:	$550/month
Lease Agreement:	Upon acceptance to the program, each participant will be sent a lease agreement to review and sign prior to move-in.
